stories worth exploring

Drama Scenarios

Second Level (Session 3)

Drama Scenarios

Optional warm up games

- What's in the box. Act pulling something out an imaginary box and the rest of the class guess what it is.
- Emotional Charades. A person comes up and acts out an emotion and others guess which emotion is being acted out.

What would you do next?

Finish the scenario and act out what you would do. Would you be a 'Good Samaritan' or would you walk past?

1. You are playing with friends at lunchtime. You notice one person alone who seems sad.
2. Your dad is working hard to get dinner on the table.
3. Someone fell down and hurt themselves.
4. Your best friend is sick.
5. You hear of another child who isn't going to get any presents for Christmas because their parents can't afford it.
6. You notice a person on crutches struggling to open a door.
7. You notice a homeless person as you walk through the city.
8. Your friend is over at your house for the first time and really wants to play with your favourite toy.
9. Your friend dropped all of their sweets out of their bag. You still have your whole bag of sweets in your hand.
10. You see your friend crying in the playground. When you ask why they are crying, they say 'I wanted to play tag with the older kids, but they said, No.'
11. You are in the supermarket with your parents and you see someone drop items from their hands onto the floor.
