stories worth exploring

Signs for Reflective Spaces

Big Questions

If God does exist what would you want to ask him?

About war? about WW1? about peace? or about something completely different?

Spend a few minutes thinking and then write down your question(s) and pin them to the barbed wire.

I will remember

What will you remember about WW1?

What do you think is the most important thing we should remember?

Write your answer on a poppy and plant it in our poppy field.

New World

There is an incredible promise in the bible that God will create a new earth that will be free from death, sorrow, crying and pain, that all of these things will be gone forever.

If you had the power to be able to make a 'New World', what would you keep the same? What would you change? What rules would you make?

Write your thoughts down on the Post-it notes and stick them to the posters.

Is war right or wrong?

There are lots of reasons why people think we should go to war, and lots of reasons why people think we shouldn't.

Take a piece of each colour of wool.

Tie them together with a knot at one end. Now slowly and thoughtfully plait the three colours together.

As you plait the red think about the reasons for war.

As you plait the white think about the reasons why we shouldn't go to war.

As you plait the green pray for the people who have to make the decision.

When you have plaited the whole length, knot the ends together to secure it.

You may like to use this as a wristband or bookmark to remind you of these prayers.

What would you keep?

What would you change?

What rules would you have?

From the Bible:

I heard a loud shout from the throne, saying, “Look, God’s home is now among his people! He will live with them, and they will be his people. God himself will be with them. He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there will be no more death or sorrow or crying or pain. All these things are gone forever.

God blesses those who work for peace, for they will be called the children of God.

You have heard the law that says the punishment must match the injury: 'An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.' But I say, do not resist an evil person! If someone slaps you on the right cheek, offer the other cheek also.

I hate robbery and wrongdoing.
