Dialogue for Speech Bubbles

Cut out the individual quotes:

The children will need to think carefully about who might have said these words in the story. Ask them to stick the quote to the appropriate speech bubble. Answers at the end.

I need some helpers.

Throw Daniel to the lions.

Daniel will be my chief helper. I'm putting him in charge of the whole country.

May your God who you serve so faithfully rescue you.

We don't like him. Why should he be in charge? Let's get rid of him.

Purrrrrrrrr

Dear God, please help me look after the country well.

Daniel, did your God rescue you?

Let's make a new law - no-one is allowed to pray to anyone except the king. Anyone who does must be thrown in to the lion pit.

Yes! He sent an angel to shut the lions' mouths.

Dear God, I know I must only pray to you. Please help me.

Get Daniel out, throw the other helpers in.

Oh most wonderful king. Daniel has been praying to God, you must throw him into the lions.

Roooooaaaarrrr!

Daniel's God is the living God, the true God, the real God. He is the God who rescues. Pray to him instead.
